

Sabbatical Application Deadlines

Applications are due at least one year in advance of the semester in which the leave is requested although applications for all semesters of the target year will be accepted and reviewed at the first deadline. If all sabbatical slots are not filled after the first review, another will be conducted in April.